FOREWORD

In the 1958 TIGER the students of Ninth Avenue School are seeking to illustrate how - through classes, organizations, athletics, recognition of special abilities and talents and school activities - students of Ninth Avenue are learning to be "Builders."

We, the Annual Staff, challenge you, our classmates, to leave footprints worthy of emulation.

DEDICATION

To you, Mrs. O. M. Rouse, we dedicate this, the 1958 edition of the TIGER. For your faithful years of teaching, for the exemplary life you live before the students of Ninth Avenue, for the confidence you have in students, for your humble willingness to keep and serve the school, and for the many extra special services you give to students. We thank you with this edition of the TIGER.

CLASS POEM

The lessons abundantly taught us by thee,
Ninth Avenue, will remain forever to guide;
Our humble efforts in our world to be,
Where minds that are low take place of pride.

Our hearts are extended to those who have never felt
The happiness within thy walls;
The serene-like peace that in the heart dwells,
And around it the like the evening shadows fall.

Here each lesson is learned with gladness,
How to bear the defeats of the hour;
How to be patient when among us is sadness,
To keep ever kind and obliging in power.

- Kaye LaVerne Nesbitt

OUR CALENDAR

Cornell Cooley was Mr. Cooley's only
SUN.

Cornell was extravagant and spent much of his pa's
MON.

So papa kicked, and cut his allowance down to ones and TUES.

One day Cornell declared he wanted more Mon., as he was about to WED.

But papa roared and fussed and said in a furious lip, no
THUR.

Now, this made Cornell boil and
FRI.

To think how upon him his papa had SAT.

CLASS HISTORY

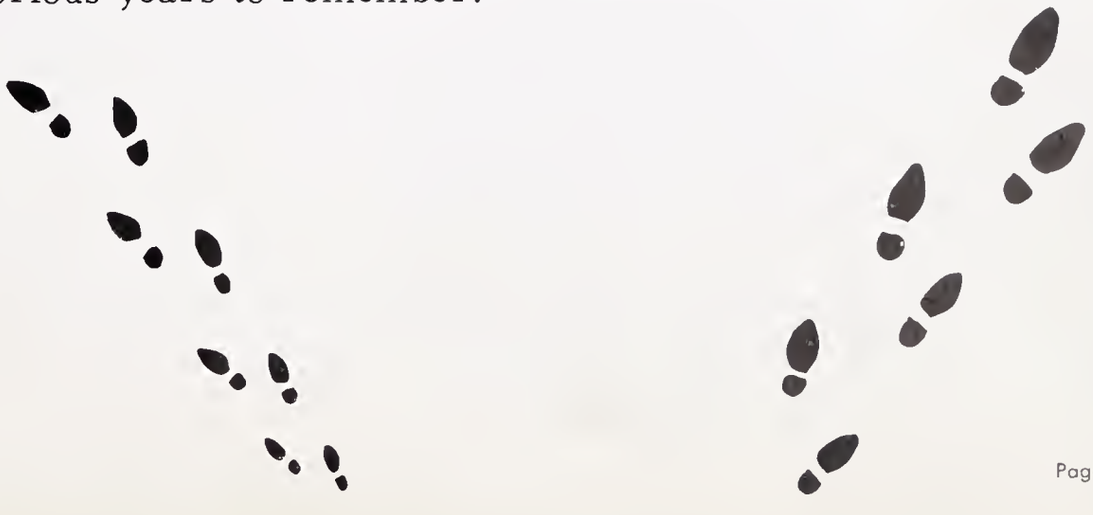
I am the Class of '58. I was born September 3, 1955, composed of forty members. George Greene was Class President; Cornell Cooley, Vice-President; Ruth Jenkins, Secretary; and James Ward, Treasurer. All of the girls belonged to the Glee Club and a majority of the boys. Audrey Davis was Treasurer of the N. H. A. Club. Edwina Campbell, George Greene, and Cornell Cooley were members of the varsity basketball team.

There were thirty-two of us our Sophomore year. Clifford Outlaw was selected "Student for the Month." Juanita Darity and Leroy Waters were our candidates of "King and Queen" of the Homecoming. Officers for this year were: President, George Greene; Secretary, Shirley Walker; and Treasurer, James Ward.

Our Junior Class was composed of twenty-eight members. Class officers were: President, James Ward; Vice-President, Clifford Outlaw; Secretary, Edwina Campbell. This class sponsored the most successful Junior and Senior Prom, primarily because of the help that came from our advisors, Miss Kilpatrick and Mrs. A. M. Burney. Kaye Nesbitt won "The Voice of Democracy" contest at school and represented us in the local finals. We were highly honored. This was a prosperous and successful year.

We began our Senior year with twenty-five members. We regret having lost a member in the person of Ann McDaniel at Christmas. Davis Ballard and Joe Louis Norman are our bus drivers. Kaye Nesbitt won the "Voice of Democracy" contest again this year. Members of the girls' basketball team were Edwina Campbell and Helen Russell. Edwina was the captain of the girls' team.

The members of the boys' basketball team were: Cornell Cooley, George Greene, James Ward, Joe Louis Norman, Lawrence Mills and Freddie Gossett. This class possessed great leadership ability. Lawrence Mills was chosen to represent the Ninth Avenue High School in the All Star Game played in Durham, North Carolina. All the girls belonged to the N. H. A. Club and also the Glee Club. These have surely been four glorious years to remember.



CAN YOU IMAGINE

Nora Lee Ledbetter's being a chorus girl?

Edwina Campbell's being disinterested in the opposite sex?

Virginia Cash's not being bossy?

Kaye Nesbitt's being boisterous?

Juanita Darity's cutting class?

Maxine Robinson's being a cross patch?

Ruth Jenkins' being the Fat Lady in the circus?

Audrey Davis' being a fashion designer?

Shirley Walker's being a song writer?

Helen Russell's being a star on Studio 57?

Lawrence "Butch" Mills' being the man on the Flying Trapeze for Barnum and Bailey?

Freddie Gossett's being Bishop of the Blue Ridge Conference?

Dalphus Robinson's getting to class on time?

Everette Camp's being director of N. C.'s Little Symphony?

Davis Ballard's speaking French and staying awake in class?

Daniel Daugherty's attending school 180 successive days?

Cornell Cooley's being Charles Atlas?

George Green?

Leroy Waters' being unreliable?

Joseph McCall's being a barker in a side show?

Robert Hall's being slouchy?

James Ward's being rude?

Max Robinson's being Heavy Weight Champion of the World?

Joe Louis Norman's being serious?
